

COMMERCIAL.

CAIRO, ILL., August 6, 1909. These quotations represent prices from first hands. In all other cases higher rates have to be paid.

Our market has been rather quiet since our last semi-weekly review, and we have but few changes to note in quotations.

TOBACCO—The offerings were light at the sale yesterday, and the bidding spirited. The prices obtained were fully equal to any previous sale, and there were no rejections. Sales comprised:

Table with 2 columns: Item (e.g., 170 lbs Superfine, 185 lbs X, 272 lbs XX) and Price.

WHEAT is unchanged and in good demand at the City Mills at quotations given elsewhere.

CORN & OATS—The former is very scarce, with some demand to fill orders. New ones are arriving and we note a sale of 30 sacks at 52 1/2c.

HAY—New is coming in to a fair extent, and we note sales of one car fair, on track, at $18.00, and one car choice do. on track, at $19.00 per ton.

PROVISIONS are mostly held, and holders not generally very anxious to sell at quotations. Desirable lots very readily command outside quotations.

CORN MEAL is unchanged with fair demand.

BUTTER—Strictly choice is not so plenty and prices are well sustained. Sales were:

Table with 2 columns: Item (e.g., 10 pails choice Southern Illinois, 10 tubs Northern) and Price.

EGGS are entirely unobtainable except for strictly fresh receipts, which sell to a limited extent, at 10 1/2c per doz.

POULTRY—Receipts are large and market rather dull, except for choice lots. 5 coops spring chickens sold at $2.00 per doz.

FRUITS & VEGETABLES of all kinds are very plenty, and none but strictly fresh are saleable. Prices remain about as last quoted.

GROCERIES & DRUGS are quiet and unchanged. FREIGHTS—There are liberal offerings at quotations and boats can fill out here with all they want.
